Worksheet for Ellen McLarney's
"Bilalian News"
by Christiane Gruber
(to be used with video linked here)

Key Takeaways:

1. How did Warith al-Deen Mohammed signal new directions for the Nation of Islam (NOI)?

2. What happened to the name and masthead of the NOI's newspaper Muhammad Speaks under WD Mohammed?

3. Why is the figure of Bilal important for the Nation of Islam?

4. How did the NOI under WD Mohammed diverge from its Black roots and signal, in both text and image, increased diversity in its constituent community?

Contextualizing the Work

The graphics in Bilalian News, especially those made by Eugene Majied, are indebted to yet diverge from those found in Muhammad Speaks. Give another example of political and/or religious iconography that relies on a source but changes its content, form, or vocabulary to overtly signal a new direction. Compare and contrast that process of change with one or several examples discussed in Dr. McLarney's talk.
