(to be used with video linked here)

Key Takeaways:

1. What message does the title "Unite and Do For Self!" convey about the Nation of Islam's goals for the Black community in the early 1960s?

2. How does Eugene Majied use visual contrasts—such as the Nation of Islam's accomplishments versus the imagery of the Ku Klux Klan—to communicate the NOI's worldview?

3. Why do you think Majied expanded the traditional Islamic shahada to include a third clause declaring "and the white devil is our open enemy"?

4. In what ways does the artwork defend the Nation of Islam against accusations of violence or extremism while highlighting white violence against Black communities?

Contextualizing the Work

How does Eugene Majied's 1963 graphic "Unite and Do For Self!" embody the Nation of Islam's broader message of racial pride, self-defense, and independence in response to white violence and mainstream misrepresentations of the movement?
